The Hospitality Committee thanks you for your support and participation in our "Meet and Greet" for Rev. Charles and Gloria Allard. Thank you for your help with setting up, decorating, food preparation, serving and cleaning up. It is such a joy and blessing to have them serving as the leaders of our family of God. And we were so glad that their daughter, Anita, and her husband Russell and their children, Nathan and Natalie were also able to attend. Parties like this are a team effort, and our church is a great team!

Jean Glosson & Gene Sherwood
Co-Chairs, Hospitality committee

I would like to thank everyone who volunteered their time to teach and help with other activities last week during our VBS. We were blessed to have 32 children in attendance, and 18 adults and youth as helpers. And many thanks also to those who brought water and snacks for VBS and school supplies for our mission project.

VBS Coordinator

Thought of the Week

Patience seems to be an unsought virtue in the world today. Everyone is in a hurry. We want it now! We definitely belong to the "instant generation". Some even consider as a weakness rather than a virtue. To some, patience is nothing more than a passive, uncomplaining acceptance of trying circumstances.

The kind of patience that the Bible teaches is anything but passive. It is active. It enables a person to stand fast and persevere under the most difficult and trying circumstances.

We are told in scripture to wait upon the Lord. Waiting on the Lord does not mean that we sit and rock on the porch twiddling our thumbs doing nothing until God acts. Waiting on the Lord in no way implies inactivity. While we are not to take matters into our own hands to resolve challenging issues, we are to engage in daily prayer, Bible Study, witnessing, worship, work and church responsibilities.

If you observe the life of Jesus you will note that our Lord never got in a hurry. Not even when Lazarus, his dear friend died. True patience, even in the face of what we consider to be urgent circumstances means acknowledging that God is in charge and that in due time he will reveal His will to us. May God give us the faith to wait on Him.

In His Love,
Charles Allard

Dear Church Family

Gloria and I want to express our gratitude for the wonderful reception you gave us last Sunday evening. To all who contributed and to all who came, we are deeply grateful. We also thank you for your kindness and encouragement to us as we begin this interim with you. We truly believe that God has opened this door of opportunity to share in the ministry of Crabtree Valley Baptist Church. You can be assured of our prayers for you and we welcome your prayers on our behalf.

In His Love, Charles & Gloria Allard
