Thanksgiving Service

Wednesday, November 25 at 6pm

Prepare your hearts for Thanksgiving by joining us on Wednesday evening for a service of “Thanks unto the Lord” and music. Invite your friends and family!

Thought for the Week

We have all heard the saying, “Sticks and stones can break my bones but words can never hurt me.” The problem with that saying is that it is simply untrue. Sticks and stones can break your bones. That much of the saying is true. But to say that words can never hurt is totally false. Words can cut you asunder. Words can destroy you.

Someone wrote many years ago about a place called

Gossip Town on the shore of falsehood bay.

It's a place where rumors grow the livelong day.

It isn't far to Gossip Town for those who want to go.

The Idleness Train will take you there in just a minute or so.

The thoughtless road is a popular route

And folks start that way. It's steep down grade,

And if you don't watch out you'll land in Falsehood bay.

You glide through the Valley of Vicious Folk

And into the Tunnel of Hate;

Then crossing the Add-to-Bridge, you walk

Right into the City Gate.

The principal street is called, “They Say,” and “I've Heard” is the public well.

The breezes that Blow from Falsehood Bay are laden with “Don't you tell”.

In the midst of the town is Tell-tale Park.

You're never quite safe while there,

It's owner is Suspicious Remark, who lives on the street “Don't Care.

Just back of the park is Slander Row,

'Twas there that “Good Name” died, pierced by a dart from Jealousy's bow in the hands of Envious Pride.

From Gossip Town, Peace long since fled.

Think before you speak. Verify what you hear before you repeat it. The best advice is from God's Word, “May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer.” (Psalm 19:14)

In His Love,

Charles

Your Sister in Christ,
April Brown

Dear Crabtree Family,
Thank you for all the calls, thoughts, and prayers during David's surgery. A special thanks to Pastor and Mrs. Allard for their visits and support during his recovery. We appreciate everything.

David and Beth Jenkins

The Hospitality Committee thanks everyone for their participation in preparing for our Welcome Luncheon for our new Music Director, April Brown last Sunday. Thank you for your contributions of food, and your assistance in setting up and cleaning up for this event. We appreciate your teamwork and support. We hope you enjoyed the food and fellowship.
