Thought For The Week

Max Eastman reminds us of two kinds of people that inhabit the earth. He describes them as passengers on a ferry boat. As a ferry boat pulls out for its journey some passengers climb upstairs or find a good viewing spot on deck while other passengers settle indoors and lose themselves in boredom.

Passengers on the upper deck represent those who are interested in what is happening around them. They want the view. They want to watch the sea gulls hitching a ride on the ferry or flying in front or back of the vessel. They look at the water for any sign of dolphin frolicking in the water or for schools of fish dashing around the boat. They want an awareness of where they have come from and where they are going. They want a view of the sky, the clouds or a beautiful sunrise or sunset. They are engaged in life.

Passengers inside the ferry are generally interested in getting from point A to point B. They may read a book, play with a cell phone or Ipad, sleep or just stare at other passengers. Basically they endure the ride with little interest of what is going on around them.

Jesus, our Lord, came into this world to give us abundant life not just toleration for it. Faith in Him opens our eyes to new and exciting experiences and enables us to see a world of opportunities. This journey of life with Christ is anything but boring. Abiding in Him we are not just passengers or sojourners going along for the ride. Rather, we are participants and co-laborers with Him with the ability to make a difference in the world in which we live.

In His Love
Charles

Brian and I would like to thank the church family for the very generous love offering for our mission trip to Guatemala. You are amazing. Please be assured the money will be used to bring some joy to the lives of many beautiful children. Please pray for us especially about our communication with the children since Spanish is not our strength, but we know God can use our actions to speak much better than our words.

Thank you, Cheryl and Brian Walker

We extend our condolences to Mrs. Jean Jones and her family upon the passing of Mr. Bob Jones on September 10.

We also extend our condolences to Al Coley for the passing of his brother, Elwood Coley, on September 10.

During the month of September we will receive the NC Missions Offering. This offering provides funding for the multiple ministries that are totally funded by the NCMO such as Baptist Men, the planting of new Churches and Evangelism, Mission Camps, Associational Mission Projects and the promotion of Missions Education. Envelopes for this offering are included in your boxes and are available in the Narthex.
