God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it...
Dad

Encourage one another and build up each other....

I Thessalonians 5:11, NRSV

Thought for the Week

*Bless be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds,
Is like to that above.*

*We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.*

We don't sing this song enough but we hold its message in our hearts. As I write this message to you these two verses of the hymn seem most appropriate at this time.

This past week 4 of our members underwent surgery. Another was in the hospital with pneumonia and still another sick with sore throat and fever. Many prayers were lifted up to God. Prayer, love and concern binds our hearts together. That in and of itself is a beautiful thing.

We may be a small congregation but we are big in love and compassion for each other. "The fellowship of kindred minds, is like to that above." Sharing mutual woes and burdens is the essence of brotherly love and the core of being in the family of God.

I want to share with you now that I will be undergoing surgery at Rex Hospital on June 20, to relieve an eye-lid problem that has increasingly added to both discomfort and fatigue over the past year. During my absence, Andrew McCullagh will be leading prayer service on June 21 and bringing the morning message on June 25. Risa Poniros will lead the prayer service on June 28, and Dr. George Braswell will be filling the pulpit on July 2. Our Deacons will do their best to minister to needs as they arise. You will be in good hands. I hope to be back in prayer service by July 5.

Your prayers are appreciated.

In His Love,
Charles
